

Jay Crabb

S A L E S
M A N A G E R

Professional Bio

My career started in work-based learning and my journey within training began in the MOD. I now have a real passion for supporting individuals and employers in finding the correct pathway for their skills and development. I now have over 15 years' experience in sales, management, and delivery within the apprenticeship sector.

Past Jobs

I have been a mess assistant and steward one in the MOD. I have been an Assessor, Vocational Learning Manager and Recruitment & Sales Manager. Most recently I have been the Head of Sales and Sales manager

Hobbies

Sports, Boxing, Movies, comics, and fun days out with my family

Fondest Memory

The birth of my daughter Bella

What Invention do you wish existed?

Time Machine

What is the nicest place you have ever visited?

Australia

What can you talk about for hours?

Family, Boxing and the comics industry

Why did you choose to work in Sales?

To provide real solutions to employers and individuals that create win-win outcomes that in turn supports employers and employees into sustainable employment with real progression opportunities.

What drives you day-to-day?

Providing for my family and challenging myself to continually grow my skills and knowledge in my chosen profession.

If you were a superhero who would you be and why?

Batman - as he can solve any problem/mystery

